To finish drawing the first path, click the last path (the one right to the right of the black rectangle), clicking and dragging the rectangle to the shape you want. To select the second path, simply highlight the last path and continue to draw a second rectangle. Continue to select each path, click and drag the next rectangle to its desired location. The three highlighted lines, which are shown in blue in the above image, are paths that you've just drawn. To finish drawing a path, select all the paths, hold down the SHIFT key and select them all. 143 F.2d 605 (1944) LITTLETON, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, v. CHARLES BRENNAN CO. No. 3304. Circuit Court of Appeals, Tenth Circuit. July 20, 1944. *606 Robert N. Anderson, Sp. Asst. to Atty. Gen. (Samuel O. Clark, Jr., Asst. Atty. Gen., and Sewall Key and Morton K. Rothschild, Sp. Assts. to Atty. Gen., on the brief), for petitioner. John V. Regan, of Salt Lake City, Utah, for respondent. Before PHILLIPS, BRATTON, and HUXMAN, Circuit Judges. PHILLIPS, Circuit Judge. Charles Brennan Co. filed a corporate income tax return for 1943, showing $2,015.49 as total income, $2,000 as the adjusted sales price of a producing oil and gas lease, and $5.49 as royalty. The Commissioner determined that the sum of $2,015.49 was the fair market value of the royalty interest in the lease and assessed a deficiency against the taxpayer in the sum of $1,375. It filed a petition for redetermination, claiming the fair market value of the royalty interest was $150,000, and that the adjusted sales price of the leased property was $123,000. The respondent assigns as error the sustaining of the Commissioner's determination, as made in excess of $2,000, that the fair market value of the royalty interest was $2,015.49. In 1943, the royalty of the lease covered by the return had an effective date of August 6, 1942, and was in effect and producing at the time the return was filed. The respondent's motion for an order to produce the books of account kept by it in its business office was granted. The taxpayer made two depositions and produced one of the books of account. The Commissioner, after the depositions were taken, prepared and filed a proposed stipulation. It recited that the tax involved was $1,375, and that the books of account were produced by the taxpayer in an offer to compromise, in the course of an investigation and an attempt to reach a settlement with regard to the tax involved. It recited that the taxpayer objected to the
